Free Youth Police Academy Helps Area Teens Gain Hands-On Experience

Explore the exciting and challenging career of law enforcement! Participants age 15-17 can learn how to conduct criminal investigations, tactical operations and traffic enforcement while receiving hands-on experience in learning defensive tactics, processing crime scenes, physical fitness, officer survival and more!

The Romeoville Police Youth Academy is a free one-week program held at the Romeoville Police Department (RPD), 1050 W. Romeo Rd, Romeoville, IL from June 10-14, 2013. The program is designed to help young people explore career and leadership opportunities, life skills and character education.

Application packets can be picked up at the RPD Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., or from the School Resource Officer at Romeoville High School (RHS) during school hours.

All application packets must be turned into RPD or RHS Resource Officer no later than 5 p.m. on May 10, 2013.
