Presence Presents Updated Plans for Health Care Facility in Romeoville

At Wednesday's Village Board meeting, updated concept plans for Presence Senior Healing Arts Pavilion in Romeoville Crossings on Weber Road were presented.

The proposed health facility is 26,800 square-feet on a 2.7 acre lot. This facility will have multiple health uses catering to seniors including an immediate care, general office visits, minor procedures, preventative health and more.

"This facility will be a great addition to our community. It will provide an unparalleled patient experience customized to seniors, their busy caregivers and families in the greater Romeoville community," said Mayor John Noak.

Final approval is anticipated this Fall with construction to begin shortly after.
