Edward Hospital to Receive Naming Rights on Romeoville's Athletic and Events Center

Romeoville officials will consider the execution of a naming rights and space lease agreement with Edward Hospital for the Athletic and Events Center, a 76,000 square foot facility located at 55 Phelps Avenue in Romeoville.

"We're looking forward to continuing our growth in the Romeoville area and providing Physical Therapy services at the Athletic and Events Center," said Lynn Cochran, Associate Vice President, Operations, Edward Hospital. "It's exciting to have the Edward name connected to a Center that is all about leading a Healthy Driven life."

The center, open since 2014, is available for use of sporting, meeting, recreational, special events and other community purposes. Edward Hospital agreed to purchase the right to name the Center and to display its name and logo within the Center's interior and exterior.

In addition, Edward will also lease space from the Village within the Center for the purpose of providing physical therapy services. The lease is anticipated to begin April 1st.

"We are excited to partner with Edward Hospital, as they are a well-respected name in the healthcare industry. Edward's Physical Therapy services and their Healthy Driven Campaign were selling points in our deliberations, as we agree being proactive is important in maintaining a healthy lifestyle," said Mayor John Noak.
