Romeoville Recreation Department Hosts Successful School Spirit Day

On Thursday, May 8th, the Romeoville Recreation Department hosted its first School Spirit Day event for Romeoville middle school students. The free end of the school year event ran from 5:00-8:30 p.m. and brought in over 70 students. There were approximately 20 teens from Romeoville Christian Academy, 20 from Lukancic Middle School, and 30 from A. Vito Martinez Middle School. Featured events included a 4-on-4 basketball challenge, a 4-on-4 volleyball challenge, egg toss, inflatable horse hop racers, inflatable sumo wrestlers, and a DJ. Teens also received a free t-shirt to represent their school's colors, pizza, and drinks.

"As we expand recreation programs, our goal is to get teens more involved. We are pleased that the inaugural event was such a success," said Mayor John Noak.

All in attendance had a great time, and because of its success, the Recreation Department plans to host a similar event in September as a school kickoff event.
