WILL COUNTY SHERIFF'S SERGEANT TERI ELLINGHAM TO SPEAK WITH ROMEOVILLE AREA SENIORS CONCERNING FRAUDS AND SCAMS

Join Romeoville Triad on Thursday, May 23, 2013 from 10:00am to 12:00pm as Will County Sheriff's Sergeant Teri Ellingham discusses current frauds and scams impacting seniors.

The program is open to all residents of Romeoville & the surrounding areas and will be held at the White Oak Library District, located at 201 W. Normantown Road in Romeoville. The event includes free admission and free parking.

Romeoville TRIAD is a branch of Will County TRIAD for Seniors, which is made up of the Sheriff, the local Police departments, and area Seniors in an effort to reduce crime against the elderly as well as to unite the senior population with law enforcement, community service agencies and other individuals to identify, educate and address specific needs in the senior community.

Thanks to the joint efforts of local law enforcement agencies, service organizations and residents, Romeoville TRIAD is proud to bring another great program to the seniors of the Romeoville area.

For more information about Romeoville TRIAD call the Will County Sheriff's Elderly Services Section at 815-727-5678, send an e-mail to Triad@willcosheriff.org, or visit the Will County Sheriff's webpage for TRIAD at www.willcosheriff.org/pages/publicaffairs/triad.html
