Longtime Romeoville Resident Appointed as New Village Trustee

Mayor Noak and the Village Board have appointed Lourdes (Lou) Aguirre as Village Trustee to fill the unexpired term of Sue Micklevitz who recently retired. Lou's term will expire in April, 2019.

"Lou will be a great addition to the Village Board. She brings experience and knowledge both as a longtime resident and business owner within the community," said Mayor John Noak.

Lou has been a Romeoville resident since 1969 and has owned Lou's Styling Place in Romeoville since 1989. Lou is very active in the community, having served on the Board of Directors for the Romeoville Area Chamber of Commerce since 2011, Romeoville Fire and Police Commission since 2012 and has been a Romeoville Rotary Member since 2016.

"I look forward to the opportunity to represent the community and be a part of Romeoville's continued growth," said Lou.

In addition to her community participation, Lou keeps busy personally as well by enjoying dancing and running. She also has a passion for traveling. She speaks fluent Spanish and has visited twenty four countries, allowing her to understand other cultures and the richness it brings to her.
