Romeoville Makes an Egg-cellent Donation

Due to the cancelation of the Bunny Bash & Egg Hunt, the Village of Romeoville will be donating 12,000 eggs to Valley View School District Nutritional Services. The eggs will be available when the meals are given out at Romeoville High School and Lukancic Middle School.

"While it is upsetting that we had to cancel our egg hunt, we are happy that the eggs will be going to a great cause right here in the community," said Mayor John Noak.

Keep an eye on village social media channels for other Easter themed fun, including contests to guess the number of eggs in a basket and jelly beans in a jar!

As a reminder, per the Governor Pritzker's Stay at Home order, we encourage residents to stay home, stay safe and only leave your homes to perform essential activities as outlined in the order. Please make sure that you are practicing all social distancing guidelines. Per the governor's order we discourage any organized gatherings or events. The Village of Romeoville continues to provide things to do through our social media outlets. For additional information visit the state's website at coronavirus.illinois.gov.
